

Public transportation

To move around the city, its recommended to use public transport over driving or taking a taxi. Nuremberg, mostly the Old town, is basically car unfriendly.

Tickets

There are generally three kinds of tickets. Probably the best and easiest solution for you will be a day ticket.

Single ticket	1 person, 1 journey	2,40
Day ticket solo	1 person, 1 day or weekend	4,80
Day ticket plus	1 – 6 pers., max 2 adults, 1 dog 1 day or weekend	8,00

Tickets are available to buy in any UBahn or SBahn entrance or platform in machines. Some of them accept credit cards, but do not count on that. Tickets are also supplied by Deutsche Bahn services centre's and even in some hotels.

U-bahn - subway

Strassenbahn - trams

Trams are a good and comfortable way to move in the city. Unlike many European cities, Nuremberg doesn't have tram lines direct in the old city centre.

Bus lines

Operating daily between 5 a.m. and 12 p.m.

There are about 50 bus lines in Nuremberg. They are meant to bring you to UBahn or SBahn stations or to outside parts of the city. If you don't have a ticket on you, you can buy one from the driver. Board the bus through the front door, so the driver can see your valid ticket.

Night liner

If you happen to be out in late night hours on Friday or Saturday nights, there is a night bus. Starts every hour from Hauptbahnhof in all directions.

Sbahn

If you stay and move just within Nuremberg, you will probably not use SBahn. However, to reach more distanced points you will need to know how.

Lines:

- S1 Bamberg - Erlangen - Fürth - Nürnberg - Lauf (li Pegn) - Hersbruck (li Pegn) - Hartmannshof
- S2 Roth - Schwabach - Nürnberg - Feucht - Altdorf
- S3 Nürnberg - Feucht - Neumarkt (Oberpf)
- S4 Nürnberg - Roßtal - Heilsbronn - Wicklesgreuth - Ansbach

Tariff zones

If you drive with a SBahn, you may leave the Nuremberg zone so you need to purchase a ticket for a relevant zone. Ask in Deutsche Bahn service centre in the Main train station for an assistance.
